"The point of this discussion is to highlight the fact that from the beginning the emphasis of the Christian doctrine of creation, following the emphasis of the Bible, has been on the relationship between God and the world. Questions about how or when God created the world have been secondary issues. When the early theologians came up with the formula that "God created the world out of ...

Who is Michael the Archangel in the Bible? Michael the Archangel is a very important individual in heaven. Archangel means "chief of the angels", so Michael must be the chief or leader of the angels. (Later, we will find out from the Bible that Michael is actually the commander of the Lord's army of angels in heaven.)
