Darwin The beginning of Darwin's title for his epochal book is On the Origin of Species. The Origin, of course, was the work that convinced the thinking world that life has evolved; and its title tended forever after to equate the term evolution with the "origin of species." To Darwin: Species evolve through the development and further modifications of adaptations under the guidance ...

Extraterrestrial life, also called alien life (or, if it is a sentient or relatively complex individual, an "extraterrestrial" or "alien"), is life that occurs outside of Earth and that did not originate from Earth. These hypothetical life forms may range from simple prokaryotes to beings with civilizations far more advanced than humanity. The Drake equation speculates about the existence of ...
