Dancing is often mentioned in the Bible. The first instance is found in Exodus 15:20 when Miriam, the sister of Moses and Aaron, led the Israelite women in dancing following the miracle at the Red Sea. It served as an expression of worship and celebration. David also offers a positive example of ...

It appears to me, by this article, the problem with praise dancing is a lack of understanding on your part. As many have stated, this a spiritual warfare movement. As far as choreography, there are two premises; 1)we are ministers and when we go before the people of God there is a message in the movement.
